West Stained Glass Window Memorial
Chaddesley Parish Church
Recorded by G R Millward 10 Feb 2000

This memorial is situated in the South aisle of the church and was presented by the parishioners in remembrance of two men who lost their lives in the Second World War. A few fragments of ancient glass have been incorporated into this window (Ref.1).

The windows include inscriptions presented as if on a scroll. Some of the scrolling is depicted as overlapping and associated words, or parts of words, are therefore absent. I have used the symbol [ ] below to depict this effect.

The first 'scrolled' inscription is towards the top of the window and encompasses both main window panels:

Be thou faithful unto death and I will [ ] a crown of life

The second 'scrolled' inscription also stretches across both window panels and is towards the bottom of the window:

I am the Resu[ ]ection and the Life, saith the Lord. He that believeth on Me, though he were Dead, yet shall he live.

Two small glass panels side-by side at the bottom of the window commemorate the fallen:

To the Glory of GOD and to JOHN DAVIS and JOHN HAROLD The World War 1939-1945, This window was	Honour the Memory of SIDNEY PHILLIPS Who gave their lives in Chaddesley given to the Church by the Parishioners of Corbett
