Recorded by G R Millward 10 Feb 2000

This window was restored by the parents of John Harold Phillips who was killed in Egypt 1940. A few fragments of coloured glass have been incorporated into the windows (Ref.1). Much of the colour in the window is in the form of various flower species including: rose, daffodil, crocus, pansy, hyacinth, hydrangea and daisy.

The inscription is at the bottom of the window and is depicted in the form of a scroll stretching across all three main window panels.
