A BACKGROUND TO SOME OF THE LOCAL MEN HONOURED ON OUR MEMORIAL WINDOWS

Leslie Barber

1917: Leslie was born on August 15th.
1939: Register of England and Wales: In September 1939 Leslie was 22 years old and living at 14, Highthorne Street, Leeds.
1943: On the 15th June Leslie, a private in the Royal Scots (The Royal Regiment), died in Burma.

Robert Eric Birdsall

1906: Robert was born on March 18th.
1911 census: In 1911 Robert was living at 13 union street, Leeds
1939: Register of England and Wales: In September 1939 Robert was 33 years old and living at 3, Lacy Street, Leeds. He was single and a general labourer.

Raymond R Birkin

1925: Raymond was born in Leeds. His mother's name was Leek. Raymond was living at 14 Paisley Terrace, Leeds.
1944: On the 6th October Raymond was serving with the Royal Army Ordnance Corps (Royal Warwickshire Regiment) and died during the Western Europe Campaign .

Bernard Bray

1904: Bernard was born on July 26th. (or possibly 1910?) His father was Frederic Bernard Bray.
He was living at 18, Conference Road, Leeds.
He was serving in the Raf when he died.

1939: Register of England and Wales: In September 1939 Robert was 35 and living at 50, Waincliffe Drive, Leeds. He was married to Kathleen (at Kimslington Street, Leeds. He was a police constable.

Hedley Brown

1902: Hedley was born.
1911 Census: In 1911 Hedley was 9 years old and living at 229 Tong Road with his father James D? Brown (33), his mother Ellen (36) and his sisters Alice and Dorothy.

He was serving in the RAF when he died.

Trevor Cave

Trevor was living at 189, Armley Ridge Road, Leeds.
He was serving in the Grenadier Guards when he died.

Michael John Dempsey

Michael was living at 26 Conference Road, Leeds.
He was serving with the Royal Army Service Corps when he died.

Douglas Drake

Douglas was born in Leeds and lived in 17 Eyre's Avenue.
1944: On September 12th Douglas, a gunner in the Royal Artillery, died in Malaysia.

William Lee Fieldhouse

William lived at 24 Cedar Grove, Leeds.
He was serving in the Royal Navy when he died.

Philip P Foy

1914: Philip was born in Leeds.
He lived at 4, Cedar Grove
1944: On September 8th Philip, a footguard in the Coldstream Guards, died during the Western Europe Campaign.

Frank Walker Keel Frankland

Frank Lived at 83, Stanningley Road.
He was in the RAMC when he died.

John Gess

Willie Haigh

Willie lived at 5, Atkinson's Yard
He was serving in the RAF when he died.

Peter Howden

Peter was living at 23, Armley Grange Oval, Leeds.
He was serving in the RN when he died.

Harry Marshall

1916: Harry was born on March 30th in Leeds.
1939 Register of England and Wales: Harry was living at 8, Rosemont Terrace. He was a cloth finisher.
Harry lived at 149 Wyther Park Hill.
1940: On May 23rd Harry, a driver in the Royal Engineers, died during the France and Belgium Campaign.

John Smith Marshall

1915: John was born on September 26th.
1939 Register of England and Wales: John was 24, a bus conductor and living at 4, Oban Place, Armley, Leeds.
He was in the Fusiliers when he died.

George Martin

1917: George was born on February 18th.
1939 Register of England and Wales: John was 24, a meat cler and cashier and living at 20, Edinburgh Road, Leeds.
He was in the RCS. He was a prison of war in Japan and died in captivity.

John Merryweather

William Moon

William was living at 23 Granby Road, Headingley.
He was serving in the Royal Navy when he died.

William W Schofield

William was born and lived in Leeds.
1939: He lived at 52, Shaftesbury Street.

1943: On February 8th William, a bombardier in the Royal Artillery, (KOYLI) died at sea.

Harold Thompson

A Harold HH Thompson was born in Bradford.
He was living at 18, Far Fold.

Joseph Milburn Thornborrow

Joseph was living at 44, Edinburgh Road, Leeds.
He was serving with the Royal Artillery when he died.

Edwin Vick

RAF

Donald Watson

Donald was living at 285, Low Lane, Horsforth, Leeds.

Donald Alfred Watson

1923: Donald was born on December 20th.
1939 Register of England and Wales: Donald was 15, a builders labourer heavy worker and living at 14 Blue Hill Crescent, Leeds with his father, Percy Walker and his mother, Annie Walker,

Gordon White

11, Edinburgh Terrace RAF

George William Wilson

George was living at 16, Greenock Place, Leeds.
He may have been first Lieutenant in The Royal Artillery Brigade.